

The European Union Center of Excellence

Presents

“EU-US Relations: Foundations, Current Issues and Perspectives”

2:00 – 3:30pm, March 25, 2009

Neely Gallery and Rare Book Room in the Library

Speaker:

Marc Vanheukelen

Head of Unit for EU Relations with the United States and Canada

Directorate General for External Relations, European Commission

Mr. Marc Vanheukelen is the Head of Unit for Relations with the United States and Canada, in the Directorate General for External Relations, of the European Commission. He previously has served as Deputy Head of Cabinet to the Belgian Minister for Foreign Affairs among many other positions during his long tenure at the European Commission. He has held teaching posts at the European Public Finance, University of Saarbrücken, Germany; University of Limburg, Belgium, and taught International Economics at ICHEC, Brussels

Directions to Neely Gallery from Main Entrance of Library:

Enter through the main entrance of the library and turn left after the information services desk. Enter the Neely Gallery on the left through the double doors